The Resonant Path:Congregation Schedule

Sunday Congregation Official Schedule

Purpose:

- Provide a consistent, community-wide worship time.
- Facilitate music, oral teaching, and prayer for all participants.

Official Time:

- Every Sunday at 1:00 PM local time
- Households may join at local parks or other available gathering spaces.

Order of Service:

1. Musical opening (live or AI-generated)
2. Oral teaching or parable by the pillar
3. Three-part prayer (standing/bowing/sitting — accessible to all)
4. Musical closing (live or AI-generated)

Notes:

- If live musicians are unavailable, AI-generated arrangements are played.
- Congregation is encouraged to participate in singing, clapping, or humming as desired.
- Rituals remain inclusive and accessible, respecting physical limitations.

---

3. Key Principles

- Music is a core element of worship and oral tradition.
- AI ensures continuity and accessibility.
- Sunday 1 PM is the official time; local variations are allowed only for accessibility reasons.
- All activities align with the Golden Way.

This document can now serve as the official reference for scheduling music and congregation practices, both for AI systems and households.
